

Dear Commissioners:

With the FCC Triennial Review postponed until next week, I am concerned that line sharing may be eliminated. Doing so will only lead to less choice and competition and higher prices for broadband services to consumers and small business owners like myself.

I urge you to continue line sharing of the "last mile".

Sincerely,

David A. Chen